What do the words mean?

1 Or do you not know [present active indicati	ve], brothers—for I am speaking [present active indicative] to those who know [present	active participle] the law [nomos]—that the law is binding on [present active indicativ	e;, have dominion over, lord, be lord of, exercise lordship over] a person only	as long as [fixed or special occasion, interval, opportunity, delay] he lives [present	active indicative]? 2 For a married womar

4 Are Christians under obligation to keep the Old Testament Law? ____

Apply (What is the point?)

- 1. Barclay: Death cancels all contracts
- 2. Evidence and examples support the main idea
- 3. "Christian" means something
- 4. Jesus releases Christians from the Law

Personalize (What do we do with that?)

- 1. Serve the right _____
- 2. Focus on the _____ idea
- 3. Be _____-like
- 4. Serve in the Spirit and be
